

EPIPHONE GUITAR DESIGN CONTEST FOR EAST TENNESSEE STUDENTS

Exciting Opportunity For Youth Artists To Customize Guitars With Original Artwork!

Dogwood Arts, the Songbirds Museum, and Songbirds Foundation are proud to announce the 2020 Epiphone Guitar Design Contest. The contest is open to all high school and middle school students living in East Tennessee. Over 15 guitar designs created by youth artists will be selected for implementation and exhibition. The art guitars will be displayed at the Songbird Museum, a one-of-a-kind guitar museum located in Chattanooga, Tennessee, and the guitars will be auctioned to benefit Dogwood Arts' youth art programs & the Songbirds Foundation's Guitars for Kids initiative.

15 winning designers will each receive $50 for art supplies and additional cash prizes totaling $1,000 will be awarded to participating artists by the Songbirds Museum!

HOW TO BE A GUITAR ARTIST

1. Students create their own unique guitar art on the guitar template attached to this form (also available online).
2. Students give the template and application form back to the art educator (teacher, artist, or parent).
3. Art educators send the guitar designs and completed applications to Dogwood Arts by January 8, 2020.
4. Winning designs will be selected by January 13, 2020, and art educators will be notified by email.
5. Epiphone guitars will be delivered to art educators January 15, 2020 - January 17, 2020.
6. The Art Guitars need to be completed by March 20, 2020.
7. Contest coordinators will manage guitar pick up or drop off with the art educator.
8. Guitars will be displayed at the Songbird Museum April 1 - 27, 2020.
9. Guitars will be displayed at Dogwood Arts Gallery May 1 - May 17, 2020.
10. Auction will conclude May 17, 2020.
